

FS 4010 Senior Capstone Collection

Credits: 3

In this senior-level course students pick up where they left off in Fashion Design III. In this course their personal aesthetic is refined as they revisit designs, develop patterns, and realize in final fabric their senior capstone collection. Senior collections have the option to be featured on the runway in RMCAD's annual Senior Fashion Show. Upon successful completion of this course, students will present their final collections, including all research and development, to department faculty and external industry professionals.
