

SBS 1110 - INTRODUCTION TO ANTHROPOLOGY

Credits: 3

Anthropology is the study of human beings throughout time and across space. In this course, students explore human evolution, our place in the animal kingdom, our knowledge of others, and our knowledge of ourselves through a focus on specific peoples and cultures. Students also critically evaluate the relationship between the observer and observed culture. At the end of the course students will learn about a variety of cultures, and grasp and use the principles governing the discipline of anthropology, including its methods of research and writing.

Prerequisites: EN 1110 - Composition I

Course Learning Outcomes:	Exceeding	Meeting	Developing	Not meeting	Program Outcomes	Institutional Outcomes
Understand the study of cultural anthropology and its role within the larger discipline of anthropology	Synthesizes the study of cultural anthropology and its role within the larger discipline of anthropology.	Explains the study of cultural anthropology and its role within the larger discipline of anthropology.	Recognizes the study of cultural anthropology and its role within the larger discipline of anthropology.	Does not understand the study of cultural anthropology and its role within the larger discipline of anthropology	LA1, LA6	Critical Thinking/Cultural Competence
Understand the relationship between the observer and those being observed, and the impact of observation.	Evaluates the relationship between the observer and those being observed, and the impact of observation.	Explains the relationship between the observer and those being observed, and the impact of observation.	Recognizes the relationship between the observer and those being observed, and the impact of observation.	Does not understand the relationship between the observer and those being observed, and the impact of observation	LA1, LA6	Critical Thinking
Understand a variety of cultures.	Analyze a variety of cultures.	Compares and contrasts a variety of cultures	Identifies a variety of cultures	Does not understand a variety of cultures	LA1, LA6	Critical Thinking/Cultural Competence
Understand anthropological research methods.	Applies anthropological research methods.	Explains anthropological research methods.	Identifies anthropological research methods.	Does not understand anthropological research methods	LA1, LA2, LA3, LA5, LA8, LA9	Critical Thinking
Understand ethical issues confronted by anthropologists.	Analyzes ethical issues confronted by anthropologists	Explains ethical issues confronted by anthropologists	Identifies ethical issues confronted by anthropologists	Does not understand ethical issues confronted by anthropologists	LA1, LA6, LA10	Critical Thinking/Cultural Competence