

FS 3603/4 - FASHION DESIGN PRACTICUM PART 1/2

Credits: 1.5

The Fashion Design Practicum course allows students to expand the knowledge and skills acquired in their coursework and explore a topic of interest under the supervision of a faculty and/or mentor. The course may consist of readings, writing, research and/or applied work approved by the supervising faculty and Department Chair. The work must culminate in a final presentation aligned with the proposal.

Note: Students have the option to fulfill a Fashion Design Internship, Practicum or a combination of the two over the course of two terms.

Prerequisites: Approval of Department Chair
