

FD2510 Special Topics

Credits: 3

This elective course is open to all levels of students and examines specific topics not otherwise covered in the campus curriculum. Specific topics and faculty will be announced prior to registration. Students will develop projects that encompass the topic at hand.

Prerequisites: none

Course Learning Outcomes	Exceeding	Meeting	Developing	Not meeting	Program Outcomes	Institutional Outcomes
Create work that represents knowledge of the special topic and appreciation of methods or materials introduced during the term.	Work integrates skills in within the special topics of the course.	Work summarizes skills in within the special topics of the course.	Work defines skills in within the special topics of the course.	Work does not demonstrate skills presented in the course.	FD1, FD2, FD3, FD4	Design Competency and Communication Competency