

HU 2212 - MODERN + CONTEMPORARY WORLD HISTORY

Credits: 3

Modern and Contemporary World History explores the shape and identity of western culture in the 20th and 21st centuries. Lectures and readings examine developments in technology, economics, political structures, religious institutions and faith, and social ideals. Upon successful completion of this course, students will recognize the major historical achievements of western culture in the 20th and 21st centuries.

Prerequisites: HU 1110 - Humanities I: World Thought I

Course Learning Outcomes:	Exceeding	Meeting	Developing	Not meeting	Program Outcomes	Institutional Outcomes
Students understand major historical achievements of western culture in the 20th and 21st centuries	Analyzes major historical achievements of western culture in the 20th and 21st centuries	Explains major historical achievements of western culture in the 20th and 21st centuries	Recognizes major historical achievements of western culture in the 20th and 21st centuries	Does not understand major historical achievements of western culture in the 20th and 21st centuries	LA1, LA6	Cultural Competence Critical Thinking