

IL 3000 Illustration Junior Portfolio Review

All juniors are required to participate in the Illustration Junior Portfolio Review, at least once during their junior year (60-90 credits). This review helps students to reflect on their learning and to increase focus on their professional objectives. At the end of this review, students will have identified artistic strengths and areas of weakness to address in their upcoming coursework.

Prerequisites: none

Course Learning Outcomes:	Exceeding	Meeting	Developing	Not Meeting	Corresponding Program Learning Outcomes	Institutional Outcomes
Organize and present a portfolio of illustration work, including coursework and personal projects.	The portfolio demonstrates high quality illustration work, above the junior level.	The portfolio demonstrates quality illustration work, at the junior level.	The portfolio demonstrates low quality illustration work, below the junior level.	The portfolio fails to demonstrate quality illustration work.	All Program Learning Outcomes	All Institutional Outcomes