

FS 3100 Special Topics in Fashion Design

Credits: 3

This advanced elective course, open to juniors and seniors, explores specialized topics not otherwise covered in the core Fashion Design curriculum. Specific topics and faculty will be announced prior to registration. Students will work towards a capstone project that encompasses areas of the special topic.

Prerequisites: Completion of 60+ credits or approval of department chair.

| Course Learning Outcomes: | Exceeding | Meeting | Developing | Not meeting | Program Outcomes | Institutional Outcomes |
|--|---|---|--|---|------------------|---|
| Demonstrate an understanding of the course topic and materials. | Student work displayed an excellent degree of demonstrating an understanding of the course topic and materials. | Student work displayed a satisfactory degree of demonstrating an understanding of the course topic and materials. | Student work displayed a limited degree of demonstrating an understanding of the course topic and materials. | Student work displayed no degree of demonstrating an understanding of the course topic and materials. | FS1 | Critical Thinking, Cultural Competence, Design Competence |
| Apply standard and specialized professional practices and methodologies to course discussions and assignments. | Student work displayed an excellent degree of applying standard and specialized professional practices and methodologies to course discussions and assignments. | Student work displayed a satisfactory degree of applying standard and specialized professional practices and methodologies to course discussions and assignments. | Student work displayed a limited degree of applying standard and specialized professional practices and methodologies to course discussions and assignments. | Student work displayed no degree of applying standard and specialized professional practices and methodologies to course discussions and assignments. | FS2, FS3, FS4 | Critical Thinking, Communication Competence, Design Competence, Cultural Competence |
| Create work and/or project that demonstrates knowledge of the special topic by using the methods, tools and techniques taught. | Student work displayed an excellent degree of creating work and/or project that demonstrates knowledge of the special topic. | Student work displayed a satisfactory degree of creating work and/or project that demonstrates knowledge of the special topic. | Student work displayed a limited degree of creating work and/or project that demonstrates knowledge of the special topic. | Student work displayed no degree of creating work and/or project that demonstrates knowledge of the special topic. | FS6 | Critical Thinking, Communication Competence, Design Competence, Cultural Competence |