

GD 4220 - STORYTELLING + VIDEO II

Credits: 3

This senior-level course builds on the storytelling and research methodologies used in GD 3230 - Storytelling + Video I. Students transform their previous research and print media into real-time non-linear editing for video and sound. Technical proficiencies include script refinements, interviewing methods, story boarding, editing, and the poetics of time. Upon successful completion of this course, students demonstrate high-level skills in storytelling via digital pre and post-production techniques.
